The poll results indicate that the administration's response to the pandemic is backfiring on Trump. The Washington Post and ABC News poll found that only 15% of Americans trust President Donald Trump, with only 9% approving of his handling of the coronavirus pandemic. Just three months ago, in the lead-up to the State of the Union address, the president's approval rating reached 44% as the public warmed up to him. Democrats, meanwhile, continue to see the pandemic as an opportunity to cast Trump as a "complete failure". They also remain confident in their position to defeat Trump at the polls. "Donald Trump is a complete failure, a danger to our country," wrote Democratic congressional candidate Brendan Kelly, in a statement obtained by Politico. "[Trump] needs to be removed from office." And in the midst of the pandemic, politicians of both parties are distancing themselves from the president. Congresswoman Nancy Pelosi, Speaker of the House, has suggested that Trump should be impeached. New York Mayor Bill de Blasio has also called for Trump's impeachment. "President Trump is a danger to our country. He
