A clerk at a Las Vegas casino's luxury gift shop sold a player a $1 million Disney World lottery ticket and then made off with $1 million in cash and $3.5 million in high-denomination gift cards to casinos, authorities said Wednesday. Steven Joseph Connors Jr., 44, of Salt Lake City, was arrested Tuesday, according to a statement from the Clark County, Nev., sheriff's department. The suspect, who was not licensed as a cashier, posed as a lottery agent and told the customer it was the $1 million winner, the statement said. After the player and the suspect agreed on the price, Connors gave him the fraudulent ticket, the statement said. "I don't think I've ever seen someone go through the lottery process so fast," said Sgt. Todd Linden with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, who was not involved in the case. The suspect cashed $950,000 in high-denomination gift cards that day at 21 casinos in Las Vegas and had the remainder of the $1 million in cash hidden in his duffel bag, according to the statement. Pornography, hashish and drug paraphernalia were also found during a search of Connors' home, police said. Connors also has six felony convictions, court records show. He pleaded guilty in June 2012 to armed robbery, attempted armed robbery, stalking and other charges stemming from his 2007 attempted robbery of an
