This year's gameplay unlocks a variety of new moves for a number of FIFA's most iconic players, including Neymar, Matthijs de Ligt, Kylian Mbappe, Paul Pogba, Dele Alli, Bastian Schweinsteiger, Dimitri Payet and Wayne Rooney. They will have a range of new techniques and skills based on how they move in the game, including using the ball differently, as well as special tactics to beat opponents. "For the first time in the history of FIFA we had to consider all the factors when it comes to how players move in the pitch," said Olivier Boscagli, FIFA Lead Producer, Bordeaux. "We wanted to keep the ball moving as realistic as possible and we received a lot of valuable data for the development team to work on. The result is the most authentic and detailed gameplay experience you've seen so far." To enhance the football experience in "FIFA 22", gameplay has been further enriched with all the detail and complexity of a professional match. The team are now able to make the ball react to the movement of the player, adapting the play to the player's specific skill set. Players will now be able to master the ball and make it do exactly what they want, and over time they can create a unique style. To add even more gameplay elements, fans of FIFA and football will be able to support their favourite team and enjoy more competitive features including more live events, tournaments, and enhancements to My Career. "FIFA is back, more intense, more violent and more exciting than ever," Boscagli added. FIFA 22 will be available November 19 in North America and November 21 in Europe. For more on the new game, and to see exclusive content on the FIFA website, including new screenshots and gameplay, visit www.fifaauthors.com. Features: - 22 Real-Life Players - HyperMotion Technology - A Variety of New Moves for Players: Five new, high-intensity moves have been implemented, with different ways of getting the ball to move and react to the player's physical movements. New, realistic, and varied: • Shot tackling animations: Players now push or tackle the ball differently in different contexts, such as a one-on-one, aerial

What's new in Fifa 22:

- “Pro Evolution Soccer” (PES) 20 comes to Xbox One, bringing the highest level of play and graphics for soccer simulation.* The Xbox One exclusive FIFA World Cup 2018 package adds the FIFA World Cup trophy to World of Soccer Mode, a new game mode featuring the New Zealand team from the 2018 World Cup. A new “All-Stars” team and new face cards for the all-time greats make World of Soccer Mode even deeper and more exciting. These game editions also include 4K Ultra HD and Dolby Atmos in select markets.**
- A new Ultimate Team League brings Seasons into FIFA Ultimate Team, letting you race against other leagues and your friends for the chance to win extra credits and skill points.
- Introducing Set Piece Creator, new to FIFA Ultimate Team. Just use as-you-go context-sensitive controls to pick your direction, angle, speed and power. It’s just like a real-life set piece, taking all the guesswork out and letting you create everything from free-kicks to corner kicks. Use multiple cues to create all kinds of hairpin-turning set pieces to put an opponent off.
- Double-take tackles, get two chances to win the header - and keep your skills sharp with a revamped One Touch Controls system that has you talking through the controls with your friends in every manner imaginable.
- Instantly see and hear your teammates on the pitch with new, versatile audible and visual cues. And new playmaker (ambient interaction) mode lets you see where your teammates are, while the brand new one-to-one chatting feature - Know Your Opponent - will help you set-up play with the strategy and tactics of your opponent.
- Glitch is back with its new ‘more advanced neural network’ to tackle the pinks and blues - decoying on goal, flanks, second balls, offsides - to run rings around your opponents.
- FIFA on Console is just the thing for quick couch multiplayer football. Not only is VIVEPORT easily accessible on Xbox One, but you can play in a league, go head to head or even play against your friends in FIFA World Cup 2018!
