Vectrix is a sci-fi-noir indie side-scrolling shooter that has you battling against a an ever-evolving cellular automata. You play as an android named Kenji-class with a unique ability called SYNth. This power allows you to string together cells to create shapes, such as suns, planets, fissures and vortexes. If you can connect all the shapes, you can destroy the cells that are beneath them! The gameplay of Vectrix has an endless difficulty curve. Only the addition of new cells can reduce your chances of survival. The combination of basic cells and these new cells are randomly generated during gameplay. Pairing cells can create a cross-shot, tri-shot, and T-shot, which can be activated by holding the left analog stick in the direction of the shot, or pressing triangle, square, and X. Multiplayer matches are still in development. Check our Discord for updates and suggestions! Based on John Conway's "Game of Life" cellular automaton, Vectrix is a techno dual-stick shooter that harkens back to arcade cabinets and pockets full of quarters. Face a nearly unlimited difficulty curve as you blast away at chaotic and erratic cells whose behavior is mathematically unpredictable in most cases! Blasting cells causes others to wilt away if you're lucky, but can also cause massive explosions of new cells! Feel the upbeat rhythm energize you as you connect the shapes to unlock cross-shots, tri-shots and T-shots at enemies! Beware of new cell formations as the colors get hotter and the music gets more intense! Race to the top of the leaderboard and beat developer high scores. Challenge your friends! Are you the best cell eradicator in town? Leave your initials to prove it!Features: Dual-stick shooting Smash developer high scores on the leaderboard! Collect powerups for even better blasting power! Funky techno-synthwave soundtrack Predictable basic cell formations evolve into uncontrollable coagulations! Solve open questions about cellular automata? Color-changing, music crescendoing difficulty curve Challenge friends and family to trounce your massive high scores Revel in the beauty of particle effects Accidentally die while reveling in the beauty of particle effects Blast unpredictable cells out of this world!About Development This game was developed as a student project at DigiPen Institute of Technology and was created for educational c9d1549cdd

77 (reviewed) [An investment in headphones? Check out B&H Photo's affiliate links and get great deals.] Headphones can be an investment that start with a premium price tag and pay off in a lifetime. It's not a comprehensive list, but headphones that stand out in terms of sound quality have earned a spot on this list. If you start from scratch with headphones and you're looking for great sound, I'd recommend spending the money up front. Spending extra for headphones is like investing in a car — you'll get better performance for the same amount of money, and they often will last longer. The best headphones I've found tend to start at about $200 and you're very likely to pick up a pair for less than $400. That will give you the best possible sound. We all want to look like the Terminator. We all want to be the one and only actor in the room to make an impression. Being tone deaf is not synonymous with looking cool. Tone deaf is a term used to describe someone who has no sense of rhythm. While many people are lucky and have a childhood experience that taught them to listen to music, others don't have that luxury. With the creation of a headphone game in the market, I was hopeful that I would have a guide with actual musical talent and training to lead me through the process and give me a sense of true tone deafness. I'm happy to announce that this wonderful individual is an audio engineer currently employed as an audio engineer who can actually tell you what frequencies are being used to create a distinction in sound quality. So, welcome, Jamar. You're here to protect the ears of the headphones and maintain the purity of sound. And while you're at it, you're going to learn a lot of stuff about headphones and their evolution. I'm going to ask you to do things you've never been asked to do by anyone before. From hearing funny things, you're going to learn about headphones. From telling guys who have a ton of money where you found your $400 headphones, you're going to learn a ton about fashion. From the possibility of testing a $400 pair of headphones yourself, you'll learn about new technology and design. What we have is an audiophile who has a very specific set

"My Inner Darkness Is A Hot Anime Girl! is an entertaining and relaxing RPG. It incorporates elements of a turn based action game as the player explores the world of the story. This game allows the player to take control of a very strong but dumb and clumsy looking protagonist. The player meets characters that train him how to survive and overcome the obstacles that show up in his path." (Steam product description) The protagonist of this game is a strong and confident but clumsy human being. He has the ability to take control of the world by his sword and can use it to find objects and solve puzzles. He's also able to use his sword to slay his intrusive thoughts and bad memories. But, the more he defeats his intrusive thoughts, the more he gets trapped in the world of his bad memories, which is where the overwhelming ambiance comes in. His inner darkness, Kard Sens, who likes her name, will keep playing mind tricks on him and it's up to him to find the way out of his mind. The game's story is about a descendant of a legendary knight who goes to sleep and has a dream about a maid on a horse that talks to him. He's taken on a journey to find his grandparents and the real maid's home. Throughout the journey, he meets people who wish to help him, but he's extremely reluctant to listen to them because he wants to face his own issues. He comes to terms with his dark thoughts with the help of his beloved maid, and they're able to defeat some of his dark thoughts. Features Include: Story driven Turn based gameplay Unique 3D graphics and music Draw your own weapon Unique and inclusive art style Explore a massive world with a robust story and 4-5 hours of gameplay Discover a variety of weapons, each with its own set of abilities A robust tactical combat system Start off with a sword and gain new abilities as you progress Build relationships with other characters An addictive, enchanting and fun game Release Date: When there are things that scare you, nothing can protect you. When you find yourself in a situation where you can't solve it on your own, you can lean on your friends. Looking for some people to check out this game, and add a bit of entertainment to your life?
